A Military Relocation Professional is a REALTOR® that is specially trained to understand your unique needs. From relocation processes and procedures to timetables for active-duty buyers and sellers, they can help you find the right housing solution and take full advantage of your military benefits and support.

Relocation is a fact of life for military service members

When you receive your PCS, the clock starts. You need to move soon and sell your current house even sooner. A Military Relocation Professional understands your unique situation and has the knowledge to make the most of your sale or purchase. They are there to help you quickly find the right housing solution and the right community to help you and your family feel at home.

Whether you are an active-duty, veteran or military family member a REALTOR® with the MRP certification understands the policies and procedures of military relocation and can help you leverage your benefits.

Tap into the knowledge of a Military Resource Professional to help you:

- ✓ Interpret the requirements for VA financing including benefits and eligibility
- ✓ Facilitate quick relocation scenarios
- ✓ Find housing options available to service members and their families
- ✓ Provide guidance through the rent/buy/sell decision – as it applies to military relocation
- ✓ Understand and utilize BAH rates and other military benefits
